

NikkiBushTV Episode 6: Boardgames for family fun

- University Games, Poppin Hoppies, R400, ToyTalk.co.za and independent stores - Board games provide wonderful family bonding time and even more so when there is laughter and excitement involved. Press the spring-loaded Poppin Hoppies and then wait until they start jumping. Each player must catch one and then exchange it for a puzzle piece the same colour. Use the puzzle pieces to build your man. The first player to build a complete man (6 pieces) in the correct colour is the winner. There are various versions of play depending on how difficult or easy you want to make the game. For 2 - 4 players. Ages: 5 - adult

- Animal Kingdom Boardgame, R240, ToyTalk.co.za and independent stores - has all the elements to make it a fun and educational wildlife board game for any generation. Learning about wildlife has never been this fun! Players arrive at the port of Africa in anticipation of the adventure that lies ahead. With a throw of the die, their journey begins. Players learn exciting facts about African Wildlife, learn to identify tracks and above all, players can become owners of their own award winning game farm represented by the currency they gain throughout the game. But be careful! The road ahead can get bumpy. Players can lose turns, lose currency and get stuck on the treacherous off-roads! Even your wildlife are in danger if a player picks up a "Nature's Way" penalty card. But show your resilience and outplay the rest by gaining knowledge about the bush and taking calculated risks. Only the strongest will survive! A fabulous wildlife game along the lines of Monopoly. Ages: 6 - adult

- Peacable Kingdom Sunny Pond Day, R300, ToyTalk.co.za and independent stores - A fabulous first board game in which players move around the board collecting the four pieces that belong to their own colour-coded puzzle. Everyone is also working together because each player must have built his/her puzzle before all the rain drops are on the board. They can help each other which eliminates stress, promotes team work and builds self-confidence. A quick 10 minute game that stimulates the skill of colour matching. Ages 2 - 4
